

The Setai, Miami Beach Unveils New Courtyard Retractable Roof & Two New Dining Experiences as Part of Property-wide Enhancements

Miami Beach, FL (November 23, 2016) – In time for 2017, The Setai Miami Beach introduces new dining options for hotel guests and locals alike in addition to a retractable roof to the hotel's coveted courtyard. Joining Jaya, The Setai's signature restaurant, is a new outdoor oceanside dining experience. The serene oceanfront resort now masterfully features two unique restaurants: Jaya and The Ocean Grill. Each conveys the warmth of Asian hospitality with exceptional, personalized service and a refreshing kind of comfort.

Jaya, meaning 'victory' in Sanskrit, is inspired by historical silk and ancient spice trading routes. Jaya's concept is developed around a celebration of culinary diversity featuring regional specialties from Southeast and Northern Asian cultures with resident Chef Vijay Veena at the helm. Guests have the option of sitting in the 200-seat indoor dining room or immersing themselves in al fresco dining in Jaya's courtyard. The recently renovated courtyard now features a built-in retractable rooftop that fully expands, allowing guests unparalleled sky views while feeling the cool ocean breeze. A stone-filled pool stretches from the north to the south end of the courtyard with dining tables surrounding the edge. Jaya's courtyard is a rare spa-like dining experience, unlike any other in South Beach. Open to guests to dine for breakfast, lunch, dinner and at their signature Sunday brunch, the courtyard is also a great place to enjoy cocktails for a great evening underneath the stars.

Guests can now dine at The Ocean Grill, formerly known as The Pool and Beach Bar. The Ocean Grill has debuted with a new menu, an expanded dining deck with extra beachfront seating, and extended hours. With its elevated deck, guests are able to take in the breathtaking view stretching all the way to the shoreline of South Beach's glittering waters. This open-air restaurant amidst the lush tropical foliage is framed in a tall wood beamed cabana designed with modern Asian finishes. The Ocean Grill is unique to any other outside dining in South Beach with water views in every direction; guests can look out in front of them and enjoy the fresh breeze of the Atlantic Ocean or turn around and gaze at the three infinity edge pools. Open to the public, The Ocean Grill makes for the perfect spot for locals and visitors alike to relax and break away from the bustling streets of Miami with an atmosphere fitting for a quick bite before the beach or a casual sit-down meal with friends.

Jaya and The Ocean Grill all share The Setai's modern Asian fusion with a unique twist to each. Whether guests are looking for a casual setting with the beautiful backdrop of South Beach at The Ocean Grill or experience the tranquility of Jaya's retractable roof courtyard, The Setai, Miami Beach has it covered. For reservations or more information please visit www.setaimiamibeach.com.
